I hope these are fair game for posting - they certainly aren't available to buy. They're up on HungerCity and Expecting Rain, so I reckon it's okay.

Does anyone have any info on exact dates, and which of these are not already circulating?

You are wrong in your assertion that none of these tracks are available to buy.

Tambourine Man is from the Concert for Bangladesh (evening show), as you should know. ;) "Sales of the DVDs and CDs of the concert continue to benefit the George Harrison Fund for UNICEF."

In addition (as you should also know) there are tracks from Before the Flood, Dylan and the Dead, and Bootleg Series Vol 7.

As far as I can make out, only tracks 1 and 2 do not circulate, although some songs are in higher quality than hitherto. I haven't placed track 3 yet.

Whoops, I didn't recognise AATW or Tamby. I guess I should have put a little effort in before appealing for help!

Any ideas on Things Have Changed? It sounds like 2000 to me, but it doesn't match any of mine.

Maybe I'm wrong, but I think Things Have Changed is from Portsmouth 2000 and is available on "Live 1961 - 2000".
Thanks for the mp3s:P
