
Best Performances: The Index

Posted by admin - 2007/09/22 01:41

The intention of the series of threads is that we, based on the 3 disc compilation tracklist, try to make a compilation of the best dylan songs but performed live.

I suggest that we sorta stick to tracklist of the official disc because is't supposed to be fanbased.

These threads will go something like this:

I make the first post and add a couple of versions of the songs which i like. Offcourse i don't own every live version of every song so everybody can respond to this with another performance.

After a week or so we wrap it up and we try to decide what performance is the best!

Then we move on to the next song!

The only thing i would like to ask you as that you don't go posting 10 nearly identical versions...

1. Song To Woody (The Winner is the 1961 version from the gaslight tapes: Download it here)

Hate to clutter this thread, but both the links above say I "do not have access to this forum," though I seem to be logged in ok. What's going on?

For It Ain't Me Babe I would nominate March 15, 2000 in Santa Cruz, Beautiful encore version with an extended harmonica solo.

The Woody Guthrie tribute from 1968. The Band was firing on all cylinders. It can bring a grown man to tears. Better than '66.
