i think chances are slim,

i don't think they ever performed together in the past and they don't really have that much in common...

Bob covered cohen back in 88 but, correct me if i'm wrong, that's where the connections end that might be where the connection ends but it started when bob stole leonard's girlfriend for a brief rendezvous (famous blue raincoat)

Is that how the story goes? I thought Bob stole Leonard's raincoat and gave it to his girlfriend, who left it on Andy Warhol's couch.

Leonard Cohen shows up in Renaldo and Clara as well, and Dylan dedicated Isis to him at one of the RTR shows.
