This gentleman has made a point to write about every Bob Dylan song in the canon, & quite well I might add. It's a project almost on par with Sufjan Steven's quest to make an album about every state in the US. It's quite interesting so far, & I can't wait to read the rest. He lists the Neverending Pool in his links, so I figure he posts here also. Show yourself, sir!

Hi there!

By way of introduction, my name's Tony Ling, and I'm the author of the blog that andrew praised very nicely (andrew, are you the andrew! that's commented on the blog? If so, thanks for doing so, and I do appreciate your thoughts. I'll make more of an effort to reply so you don't feel your time is wasted :lol:). I used to participate in the old Dylanpool, and I'm going to make an effort to participate in the new Never Ending Pool and post here. Hope to see everyone on my blog, and an effusive thank you to those that already read it!

Rather than make a new thread, I think I'll just post blog updates here; at least, until the mods make me stop. ;)
