And if a gig at the Glastonbury festival (23. - 27.06.2010) actually happens (as was rumored some time ago), then there's much room for speculation to fill the space in between :).

I hope Bob doesn't pick a festival tour. With a time frame from may to june/july, he's right in the middle of the european festival season.

thinking of Pinkpop in the netherlands in may, rock am ring in germany in june, werchter and roskilde beginning july, glastonbury,...
